

Indexes used for cost of living comparisons:

These indexes range from government reimbursement allowances (Child Care from the California Department of Education and Section 8 Housing Vouchers from the US Department of Housing) to academic studies (the MIT Living Wage Index and Yale/Texas A&M Comparative Wage Index) to multiple think-tank studies. Two more counties show high on most of them.